Dear Friends of Heart House Hospice,

On March 28, 2020 we will welcome guests to attend the Heart House Hospice Gala – Opening Doors. This is a monumental year for Heart House because as we continue to support our community, we are also driving change in our community.

- Heart House is Opening Doors to improving end of life care for people living with a terminal illness.
- Heart House is Opening Doors for better support for their families, friends and caregivers.
- Heart House is Opening Doors and creating awareness for the need for hospice palliative care.

The Opening Doors Gala will honour and celebrate our Community and Volunteer Change Makers, because they are a testament to what can be accomplished with kindness, generosity and dedication to our mission.

We invite you to extend your patronage by donating to our silent auction or wine auction. We invite you to be a Change Maker!

Anwar Knight, TV Personality (CTV Network News) is a great friend of Heart House and is once again returning to host the Opening Doors Gala at the Mississauga Convention Centre.

Our vision is to transform end of life and palliative care within the community of Mississauga. We need your generosity and continued support as a guest, patron, sponsor or donor for the Opening Doors Gala – join us and be a Change Maker!

CANADA REVENUE AGENCY GUIDELINES FOR CHARITABLE TAX RECEIPTS

Gift Cards/Gift Certificates

- Tax receipts cannot be issued for gift cards or gift certificates if the donor is the business that issued it.
- Tax receipts may be issued if the person who donates the gift card or gift certificate purchased it from a business and then donates it to charity.

Donations of Services

 Contributors of services (time, labour, skills) are not transfers of property and are not considered gifts. No tax receipts may be issued for donation of services (legal, entertainment, transportation, dining services, etc.).

Use of Vacation Property

• The use of a property is not the same as the transfer of a property; therefore no tax receipts may be issued.

Gifts In Kind

- Receipts for gifts-in-kind can be issued at the lower of the fair market value or the cost of the material goods, if the donors acquired the goods less than three years before the gift date or if the donor acquired goods within the past ten years with the intention to donate. This excludes gifts from inventory.
- If an individual donates an item the donor must sign the donation agreement form and provide proof of cost of the purchase (sales receipt). If there is not a sales receipt, the fair market value must be established for the goods. For items greater than or equal to $1,000, an appraisal must be supplied, including the appraiser's name and address.
- The appraiser must be independent from both the donor and Heart House Hospice. For items valued at less than $1,000 other independent sources may be used. If a fair market value cannot be established, a tax receipt cannot be issued.

Corporate Contributions

• Corporations can give in the following ways: sponsorships, donations and pledges.

Businesses Donating Inventory

- Businesses can deduct the original cost of the inventory as a business expense and not lose the tax benefit associated with the transfer of property. Heart House Hospice can provide the donor with a business receipt (letter of acknowledgement) stating the value of the gift (this requires an invoice marked "paid" to be issued by the business at the time of donation of the item(s). This can be used to write off the inventory donation.
- Businesses can deduct the cost of the donated items as a business expense and not lose the tax benefit associated with the transfer of property. Heart House Hospice can provide the donor with a business receipt (letter of acknowledgement) stating the value of the gift (requires proof of original cost paid by the business).

Donations of Artwork

 Gift-in-kind rules apply. Additional information required for donations of artwork include: a list of credentials for the appraiser, a history of the artist, a description of the art piece including significant points, methodology used to value the artwork, reference to recent market purchases to determine value, proof of date of acquisition and cost to purchase. Appraisals must be signed by the appraiser and include contact information

Donations of Wine

 Gift-in-kind rules apply. Additional information required for donations of wine include: a list of credentials for the appraiser, a description of the wine donated and its physical state or other significant points, methodology used to value the wine, reference to recent market purchases to determine value, proof of date of acquisition and cost to purchase. Appraisals must be signed by the appraiser and include contact information. If the corporation receives no benefits (advertising in a brochure, logo recognition, tickets, etc.) an official receipt can be issued for tax purposes upon request.
